The institute is taking initiative to start B.Tech. in Food Technology under the visionary guidance of Hon'ble Vice-Chancellor, BASU and Dean, SGIDT, Patna

About the Programme

This short course aims to provide insights on recent trends in nutritional research and to motivate, create awareness and educate people on healthy nutrition and its association with good health and longevity. Good food and nutrition are the foundation of a society, which leads to a healthy human body and helps us to have a positive mindset. Ensuring a healthy, affordable diet for all and highlighting the importance of ensuring access to nutritious food, regardless of their income level, is the need of the hour.
